IDENTITY

These are the Bylaws of THE LEXINGTON CLUB VILLAS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC., a Florida not-for-profit corporation ("Association").

ARTICLE II

PURPOSES

This Association has been organized for the purpose of being a condominium association within the meaning of the Condominium Act of the State of Florida, and in turn for the purpose of operating, governing, administering and managing the property and affairs of THE LEXINGTON CLUB VILLAS CONDOMINIUM (the "Condominium") and to exercise all powers granted to it as a corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation and the Declaration of Condominium to which these Bylaws are attached, and further to exercise all powers granted to a condominium association under the Condominium Act.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

1. Directors.

A. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors composed of no less than three (3) and no more than nine (9) persons. The members of the first Board of Directors are designated in the Articles of Incorporation and need not be members of the Association. They shall serve until fifteen percent (15%) of the units in the Condominium are sold and closed, at which time no less than one-third (1/3) of them shall be replaced by a director elected by the unit owners other than the Developer. Unit owners other than the Developer shall be entitled to elect a majority of directors either three (3) months after ninety percent (90%) of the units have been sold; three (3) years after fifty percent (50%) of the units have been sold; or when all of the units have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to Purchasers and none of the units are being offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business, whichever shall be the first to occur. The Developer shall be entitled to elect at least one (1) director as long as the Developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five percent (5%) of the units in the Condominium.

Until such time as the unit owners other than the Developer shall be entitled to elect all of the directors, Developer shall have the absolute right, in its absolute discretion and at any time, to remove any director selected by the Developer and to replace the director so discharged.

B. Directors shall be elected by the members at the annual meeting of members and shall hold office until the next annual meeting and until their successors are elected and shall qualify.

C. At least fourteen (14) days before the annual meeting, a complete list of members entitled to vote at such election, together with the addresses of each, shall be prepared by the Secretary. Such list shall be maintained at the office of the Association for fourteen (14) days prior to the election, for the examination of every member of the Association and shall be produced and kept at the time and place of election, subject to the inspection of any member who may be present. At the first annual meeting of the members, directors shall be elected for a term of one (1) year.

D. Directors other than the initial Board of Directors, shall be elected as follows:

(1) Nominations shall be from the floor at the annual membership meeting, and a vote shall be had by written, secret ballot. There shall be no cumulative voting. The election of each director shall be separate and shall require a plurality of the votes of those persons voting in each election. All of the directors shall be elected at the same meeting.

(2) Directors shall be members of the Association, except that this provision shall not apply to the persons designated to be the first Board of Directors by Article VI of the Articles of Incorporation.

2. Officers.

The officers of the Association shall consist of a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, any of whom may be members of the Board of Directors, and such other officers as the Board of Directors may appoint. The officers named in the Articles of Incorporation shall serve until the first annual meeting of the Board of Directors, and at such meeting the Board of Directors shall elect the aforesaid officers. Officers elected at the first annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall hold office until the next and ensuing annual meeting of the Board of Directors or until their successors shall have been elected and shall qualify.

3. Resignation, Vacancy, Removal, Compensation.

A. Any director or officer of the Association may resign at any time, by instrument in writing. Resignations shall take effect at the time specified therein, and if no time is specified, at the time of receipt by the President or Secretary of the Association. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. A resignation shall be deemed to have occurred upon termination by the director or officer of membership in the Association.

B. Subject to the right of the Developer to replace directors selected by the Developer, when a vacancy occurs on the Board of Directors, the vacancy shall be filled by the remaining members of the Board of Directors at their next meeting, by electing a person who shall serve until the next annual meeting of the members.

When a vacancy occurs in an office for any cause before an officer's term has expired, the office shall be filled by the Board of Directors at its next meeting by electing a person to serve for the unexpired term.

C. Any director may be recalled and removed from office, with or without cause, pursuant to the provisions of Section 718.112(2)(k), except that directors elected by the Developer shall not be affected by this provision.

D. Upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, any officer may be removed either with or without cause, and his successor elected at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors, or at any special meeting called for such purpose.

E. No compensation shall be paid to directors or officers for their services as directors or officers.

MEETINGS, SPECIAL MEETINGS, QUORUMS, PROXIES

1. Meetings of Members.

A. Annual meetings: The first annual meeting of the Association shall be held at the office of the Association one (1) year after the date of the adoption of these Bylaws. Thereafter, the annual meeting of the Association shall be held at the office of the Association on any business day during the month in which these Bylaws were adopted. At such meetings there shall be elected by ballot of the members, a Board of Directors, in accordance with the requirements of these Bylaws. The members may also transact such other business of the Association as may properly come before the meeting. The Secretary shall file the affidavit of notice as required by the Act.

B. Special meetings: It shall be the duty of the President to call a special meeting of the Association as directed by resolution of the Board of Directors or upon a petition signed by ten percent (10%) of the members having been presented to the Secretary. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except as stated in the notice thereof unless by consent of four-fifths (4/5) of the members present, either in person or by proxy. In addition, a special meeting of the Association, to recall or remove a member of the Board of Directors, shall be called upon ten percent (10%) of the members giving notice of the meeting, provided the notice states the purpose of the special meeting.

C. Notice of meetings: It shall be the duty of the Secretary to provide notice of the annual or special meeting, stating the purpose thereof as well as the time and place where it is to be held, to each member of record, at his address as it appears on the membership book of the Association, or, if no address appears, at his last known place of address, at least fourteen (14) but not more than forty (40) days prior to such meeting. If hand delivered, receipt of such notice shall be signed by the member. If mailed, the Secretary shall retain the post office certificate of mailing as proof of such mailing. The mailing of the notice in the manner provided in this paragraph shall be considered notice served. Notice of meetings shall also be posted at a conspicuous place at the Condominium property, at least 14 days in advance of each meeting, except in cases of emergency. Notice of any meeting at which assessments against members are to be considered shall specifically contain a statement that such assessments will be considered and the nature of such assessments.

D. Budgetary meetings: The Board of Directors shall mail a meeting notice and copies of the proposed annual budget of assessments to the members not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting at which the budget will be considered. The members shall be given written notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Board of Directors at which the budget will be considered and such meeting will be open to members. If an adopted budget requires assessment against the members in any fiscal or calendar year exceeding 115% of the assessments for the preceding year, the Board of Directors, upon written application of ten percent (10%) of the members to the Board of Directors, shall call a special meeting of the members within thirty (30) days, upon not less than ten (10) days' written notice to each member. At the special meeting, members may consider and enact a budget by a majority vote of all members. If a quorum is not attained or a substitute budget is not adopted by the unit owners, the budget adopted by the Board of Directors shall go into effect as scheduled. In determining whether assessments exceed 115% of similar assessments for prior years, any authorized provisions for reasonable reserves for repair or replacement of the condominium property, anticipated expenses by the Association which are not anticipated to be incurred on a regular or annual basis, insurance premiums, expenses resulting from Acts of God, utility expenses and assessments for betterments to the condominium property shall be excluded from the computation.

E. Quorum: No less than one-third of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings.

F. Adjourned meetings: If any meeting of members cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, the members who are present, either in person or by proxy, may, except as otherwise provided for by law, adjourn the meeting to a time not less than forty-eight (48) hours from the time the original meeting was called.

G. Voting: At every meeting of the members, each member present, either in person or by proxy, shall have the right to cast one vote on each question. The vote of members holding a majority of the votes present, in person or by proxy, shall decide any question brought before such meeting, unless the question is one upon which, by express provision of statute or of the Declaration of Condominium a different vote is required, in which case such express provision shall govern and control. All voting shall be by secret ballot.

H. Proxies: A member may appoint a proxy. Any proxy must be filed with the Secretary before the appointed time of each meeting and such proxy shall be valid only for the particular meeting designated in the proxy and any lawfully adjourned meetings thereof. In no event shall such proxy be valid for a period longer than ninety (90) days after the date of the first meeting for which it was given and every proxy shall be revocable, at any time, at the pleasure of the member exercising it.

I. Waiver and consent: Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent a member from waiving notice of meeting or acting by written agreement without a meeting, and such waiver and action by written agreement are hereby expressly permitted.

2. Meetings of directors:

A. Organizational meeting: The first meeting of a newly elected Board of Directors shall be held within ten (10) days of election at such place as shall be fixed by the directors at the meeting at which such directors were elected, and no notice shall be necessary to the newly elected directors in order to legally constitute such meeting, provided a majority of the whole Board of Directors shall be present.

B. Regular meetings: The Board of Directors may establish a schedule of regular meetings to be held at such place as the directors may designate, in which event no notice need be sent to the directors once said schedule has been adopted.

C. Special meetings: Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President, on three (3) days' notice to each director, given personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, which notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be called by the President or Secretary in like manner and on like notice upon the written request of a majority of the Board of Directors.

D. Notice of regular meetings: Notice of the time and purpose of regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, at least three (3) days prior to the day named for such meeting. All meetings shall be open to unit owners. Notice of all meetings shall be conspicuously posted at the Condominium property at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting, except in cases of emergency.

E. Waiver of notice: Before or at any meeting of the Board of Directors, any director may, in writing, waive notice of such meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a director at any meeting of the Board shall be a waiver of notice by him of the time and place thereof. If all the directors are present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

F. Quorum: At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the acts of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the acts of the Board of Directors. If, at any meeting of the Board of Directors, there be less than a quorum, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice.

The common expenses include those expenses described in the Declaration of Condominium and any other expenses designated as common expenses by the Board of Directors, under the authority and sanction of the Declaration of Condominium and the Condominium Act.

2. Funds for the payment of common expenses shall be assessed against and shall be a lien against the condominium units in the proportion or percentage of sharing common expenses provided in the Declaration of Condominium.

3. Regular assessments shall be paid by the members on a monthly basis, payable in advance on the first day of each and every month, or as otherwise established by the Board of Directors.

4. Special assessments should they be required by the Board of Directors, shall be levied and paid in the same manner as regular assessments, unless the Declaration of Condominium shall otherwise provide.

5. When the Board of Directors has determined the amount of any assessments, the Secretary shall transmit a statement of such assessment to each Condominium unit owner. All such payments shall be made payable to The Lexington Club Villas Condominium Association, Inc.

Assessments are necessarily made upon projections and estimates of the Board of Directors, and may be in excess of, or less than the sums required to meet the cash requirements of the Condominium, in which event the Board of Directors may increase or diminish the amount of an assessment and make such adjustments in cash, or otherwise as they shall deem proper, in their sole discretion, including the assessment of each member of his proportionate share for any deficiency. Notice of all changes in assessments shall be given to all unit owners.

6. Assessments shall not include charges for utilities separately charged and metered to each unit, nor charges for alterations, repairs, maintenance, improvements, or decorating within the interior of any unit.

7. Assessments not paid within ten (10) days from the date due shall bear interest from the date when due until paid at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum. Additionally, the failure to pay any assessment within ten (10) days from the date due shall entitle the Association to levy a twenty-five dollar ($25.00) late charge against the defaulting unit owner.

8. In the event an assessment is not paid within ten (10) days of the date same shall be due and payable, the Association, through the Board of Directors, may proceed to enforce and collect said assessments from the delinquent unit owner in any manner provided for by the Condominium Act, the Declaration of Condominium and these Bylaws. Each unit owner shall be individually responsible for the payment of assessments against his unit and for the payment of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Association in the collection of sums due and the enforcement of any lien held by the Association.

9. If the proposed annual budget is not adopted prior to the start of the new fiscal year, an assessment shall be presumed to be made in the amount of the last prior assessment and monthly installments on such assessment shall be due upon each installment payment date until changed by an amended assessment.

In the event of a violation, other than non-payment of an assessment by a unit owner, of any of the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, these Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations of the Association, the Articles of Incorporation, the Management Agreement or any provision of the Condominium Act, the Association, after reasonable notice to cure not to exceed ten (10) days, shall have all rights and remedies provided by law, including without limitation (and such remedies shall or may be cumulative) the right to sue for damages, the right to seek injunctive relief, and in the event of the failure to pay assessments, the right to foreclose its lien provided in the Condominium Act and in every such proceeding, the unit owner at fault shall be liable for court costs and the Association's reasonable attorneys' fees. AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

Subject always to the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, these Bylaws may be amended, modified or rescinded in accordance with the Declaration of Condominium or by a resolution duly adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors at any duly called meeting of the Board of Directors, and thereafter submitted to the members at any duly convened meeting of the members and approved by the holders of seventy-five percent (75%) of the votes of the members present in person or by proxy, provided there is a quorum, and further provided that notice of the proposed change is given in the notice of the meeting, and further provided that the voting requirements of the Declaration of Condominium are met in full, in the appropriate cases. Notice may be waived in writing by any member. Amendments to these Bylaws may be proposed by the Board of Directors, acting upon the vote of a majority of the directors, or proposed by members of the Association having a majority of the votes in the Association.

No amendment shall discriminate against any unit owner nor any class or group of unit owners unless the unit owners so affected shall consent. No amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Articles of Incorporation or the Declaration of Condominium. No amendment which affects the Developer may be adopted or become effective without the prior written consent of the affected Developer. No Bylaw shall be revised or amended by reference to its title or number only. Proposals to amend existing Bylaws shall contain the full text of the Bylaws to be amended; new words shall be inserted in the text and underlined and words to be deleted shall be lined through with hyphens. However, if the proposed change is so extensive that this procedure would hinder, rather than assist, the understanding of the proposed amendment, it is not necessary to use underlining and hyphens as indicators of words added or deleted, but, instead, a notation must be inserted immediately preceding the proposed amendment in substantially the following language: "Substantial re-wording of Bylaw. See Bylaw Article ___ for present text." Non-material errors or omissions in the Bylaw process shall not invalidate an otherwise properly promulgated amendment.

A copy of each amendment shall be attached to a certificate certifying that the amendment was duly adopted as an amendment of the Bylaws, which certificate shall be executed by the officers of the Association with the formalities of a deed. The amendment shall be effective when such certificate and a copy of the amendment are recorded in the Public Records of Palm Beach County, Florida.
